新聞學系贊助人威廉氏辭米蘇里校長

美使施肇基稱贊威廉成績

生徒幾遍亞美我國人士望其再度來華

威廉現重任新聞學院院長

據米蘇里來訊，協助組織燕京大學新聞學系之第一人，威廉博士，於上月十日因病辭去美國米蘇里大學校長之職。重任該校新聞學院院長。中國駐美公使施肇基氏，曾致函稱贊威廉氏之工作，略謂中國對於威廉氏一手協助完成燕京大學新聞學系，極表感謝，威廉氏此次辭去其校長之職，一方面固極為可惜，但他方面則感威廉氏努力數十年後，應得其休息。中國人士對於威廉氏之人格及事績極表欽佩，直至今日猶未忘記前次威廉氏來華所留下之良好印象，且極希望在此比較閒暇之時期，能再度重來也。

威廉氏現年七十，舉辦事業甚多，最顯著者係創辦米蘇里新聞學院。威廉氏所教授之學生在亞美者，為數甚衆。

班際籃球戰 三四年級從容取勝

大三昨午的班際籃球賽中，以四十二比二十六戰勝大一。開戰未及五分鐘，大三隊即已氣壓萬丈，高浴任永康的活躍，畢華慶薛煜射球的準確，造成了十二比二的局面。大一隊的熊大細不肯示弱，連忙調換主力軍方永祿上場，上半場完畢仍以二十二比十五落後。下半場大三隊繼續進攻，大一隊已失反攻之力，以五比十八再敗。

又大四籃球隊與教職員籃球隊同時舉行比賽。大四實力為本校各隊之冠，從容應戰，教職員隊因畢範

京校友章進 報告募款實情

關於燕大校務長司徒雷登在京接洽的情形，本報早有紀載，頃接南京校友章進來函，報告甚詳，茲照錄如左：

本月十六日，蔣委員長汪院長孔部長聯名邀請黨政軍及商界領袖在勵志社茶會，計到會者約百餘人，除各院部各長官及銀行界首領外，燕大旅京校友亦被邀參加。是日茶會由汪院長主席，首說明茶會之用意，乃為燕大籌集百萬基金事，邀請各界領袖商討協助之辦法，繼由孔部長詳述燕大之歷史與現狀，次由司徒校務長答辭，末由王部長說明私立大學在現在中國高等教育上所佔地位之重要，並稱述燕大辦學之完美，並佩服司徒校務長之熱忱辦學。關於在京募捐進行辦法，當經汪孔二氏面托勵志社總幹事黃仁霖君特別協助燕大校友會向各方勸募之。

十七日下午五時，司徒校務長在上海咖啡館邀請燕大在京校友茶會，到會者三十餘人，司徒校務長報告學校最近狀況，甚為詳盡。

十七日晚七時，燕大旅京校友會特假座英西茶館宴請司徒校務長，席間除討論捐款辦法外，並有校友馮志東君之笑談，以為餘興，至九時始盡歡而散。

燕京牛奶廠的變遷

從十年前燕大農科談到現在的牛奶廠

牛奶廠 當我們在燕京大學校園南邊，網球場上走的時候，這座校外景物，最易引起我們注意的，是東南角圍牆外矗立的一座洋灰圍牆，大家對這個圍牆的用途，大概沒有一個知道。對這座圍牆下面的兩所灰頂白房子裏面，是幹的什麼工作，明白的也不會很多。因為地勢的關係，我們看不到塔底下平地上的情況；但有時一陣風吹來，我們很明顯的聽見牲畜的聲音。原來這座洋灰塔象徵一種圍牆，地上有許多用木枝鐵

網圍成的柵欄，裏面畜養着幾十隻牛，這就是與燕京大學有悠久關係的燕京牛奶廠。

自牛奶廠成立於一九二〇年，到現在，管理廠中一切事務的是燕京一位老大哥——于振周主任，他的頭下留有印度式鬍子的許地山先生同開名的女詩人謝冰心女士都是同班。在一九二〇年他得燕京文學士，一九二三年又在燕京農科畢業，畢業後，當農科助教，後來曾代理農科主任，當燕京農科被金陵大學合併後，他就改在牛奶廠服務，一直

到現在，這一篇的記載都由于主任的口述得來。

農科與牛奶廠

燕京牛奶廠的歷史就是燕京農科的歷史，我們要知牛奶廠的經過，不能忽略燕京的農科，農科在一九二〇成立，一九二八年停辦，一共畢業過三年停辦，畢業學生七人。

一九二〇：當時當局注意墾牧，在南苑立一大規模墾牧公司，名稱就叫做華北墾牧公司。資本由當時熱心的富豪與商家負擔，人才方面，則由燕京大學培養。

一九二一：由美國請到一位畜牧專家 Mr. W. B. Chamberlain 主持一切。燕京農科注重在牧畜方面。這一年在南苑購地二百畝，為試驗場之用。

一九二三：得華洋義賑會款美金二十五萬元。華洋義賑會以華北賑災的餘款，美金一百萬元，分給金陵（得七十五萬），燕京兩校農科，以十年為試辦期，在此期內，以基金的利息為維持費，至期滿成績優良者，得一百萬的整款。成績差者，即行停辦，因此兩校當時競爭甚烈。

一九二四：美國有許多公司，贈給農科的牛羊好種，當由美國請來的教授 Mr. Eubank 同 Mr. Eter 由美國帶到燕京牛奶廠。

圖書館遺失辭典
燕京大學圖書館點查課昨晨在第二閱覽室發現遺失辭典一冊，按此大辭典係本學期第一次發現，據該館主任報告：此書或係同學未借書手續借出館外，不日或可收還，日後尚希望同學能多維持該館公共秩序。

公衆論壇

本論壇出這些小的地方，專爲發表燕大公衆的議論，關於論壇的稿件取選，編者以爲，凡是態度光明，不存偏見而體材切於目前情勢者，都將一律刊登。當然，題目也並不是沒有範圍的。我們所歡迎的是：與燕大這小社會裏的公衆問題直接間接有關係的討論，此外應該聲明一句，來稿一律文責自負。

說明我的立場

陳先澤

並宣告不再發言

我受不了飯堂那種混亂情形的刺激，所以一向主張飯堂應大大的改良。站在這種立場上，對於柯士添和「林百英」二君的爭論，我曾以第三者的資格發表了一點意見，大意是：

(1)我親眼見過不少次同學追「打」厨役，至於「罵」更是常事。

(2)希望大家對於善意而有建設性質的批判，勿輕易用刻薄的態度。

第一點證明了柯君說的並不是「謠」；第二點是一點誠懇的希望，因爲「林」君說柯君「造謠」，「睡著造謠，或醒着造謠」。誰料「林」君因爲成怒（其實大可不必），在其「小小的答覆」中，竟把他那種專爲對「人」的筆鋒轉過來對我，活像「兩個黃鸝鳴翠柳，一行白鷺上青天」，到底不知說些什麼，越來離題越遠（讀者儘可參閱「林」君兩篇大作）。這種脫了軌道的爭辯，我以爲不值得在公衆論壇上出現。我於盡燕大一份子的責任，證明事實並略貢獻誠意之外，實在沒有閒情來作專爲對「人」的文章；而飯堂的事實俱在，大衆自有公論，斷不容任何人胡說。不過，在大家作批判之前，請別忘記林君的惟一論據：

「不但沒有學生打厨役的事發生，就是信口謾罵，也極屬罕見。」

我的一點青年人的熱誠，和柯君一樣給人家澆了一盆冷水，這是一種革新思想與腐化勢力衝突的必然結果，我並不以爲怪。「林」君既不信我言，我當然不能強他；他不能「明瞭作者柯君真意所在」，那還有何辦法？是非只有他的良心明白。似乎是蕭伯納說過的：「說謊者所受的懲罰，不是別人以後不相信他，而是他以後不能相信別人」。

我既說明我的立場了，以後對這一類的爭論，恕我沒有閒工夫參加。

由「林百英」的爭論說到公衆論壇的本身

陳禮頌

我忽然又想到「林」君似乎是未嘗踏入過膳堂的，於是這疑問又引我想到「林百英」其人。其人之有無問題上。我通查了廚房的飯票存根上的用膳者的名字，終查不出有「林百英」其人。再看本年度的學校人名錄中，教授，學生，高級職員，以至下級職員們的名字，一樣的沒有「林百英」其人。至此我疑是校門外的閒人，固意用一種人所共知的話來投論壇，企圖淆亂校內人們的視聽的。及後各方打聽，結果只探出「林百英」乃本校一位同學的假名，可是對於「林」君的眞姓名，則依舊茫然。我不禁嘆噫，天下居然有這樣的怪事，爲要攻擊他人而不惜改換自己的姓名。我覺得某君這種舉動，未免太對不起他的祖宗。現在我以誠懇的態度敬告「林」君：

(一)爲要攻擊某人而改名換姓，這事是很不值得的。而且(二)因爲經你用假姓名發表的言論，無論你的言論多麼高超卓越，讀者很容易看出你是不負責任的，當你的言論爲無聊的。(三)對於某事發表言論時，最要緊的是先對事，對人其次。不知「林」君以爲然否？

最末我希望燕京新聞的公衆論壇編者注意這一點：以後凡有關於校內事務與輿論的言論，作者若不載其眞姓名時，還是不登爲妙，因爲這樣的不負責任的文章，是很容易影響到公衆論壇的價值問題的。這只是我個人誠懇的貢獻給燕京新聞的一個小意見，編者先生幸勿以爲是「越俎代庖」。

公開網球賽單打

複決賽結果難產

勢均力敵定期再戰

昨日下午燕大公開網球單打複決賽，兩場均未賽完。第一場李國藩對畢範理，第二場羅孝建對夏仁德。每場競爭都很激烈。畢範理是本市西人中學打最利害的，羅孝建是本屆華北運動會雙打的優勝者，夏仁德的技術也還不錯，打來自然精彩。第一場李國藩與畢範理各勝二盤，本將繼續作戰以最後一盤的結果定勝負，但天晚昏黑不便繼續，只好定期再戰。第二場夏仁德先以七比五勝一盤，羅孝建繼以六比四，六比一連勝兩盤，第四盤定期再決勝負。據一般推測，羅孝建很有把握戰勝夏仁德，至於李畢兩人，實在難分上下，要看球運如何，要之，能得決賽權者，只有畢李羅三人，較有希望得單打錦標的恐怕是畢羅二人中的一個吧。

△函燕大徵求論文

美國紐約新史社，在最近給燕京來一函徵求論文，按該社(The New History Society)是一種教會組織的機關，這個社所懷抱的志願：是以研究種族階級的戰爭，消滅國際的界限，改造社會的生活，去實現一個普遍的宗教，做一個大同的世界為宗旨。去年該社曾在拉丁美洲北美等區舉行過一次徵文比賽，現在因鑒於亞洲宗教之偉大，所以舉行這次亞洲區的徵文競賽，題目為「少年能如何貢獻以促進普遍宗教之實現」與賽者的資格，應是亞洲人，無論男女，年齡以三十為限，並且他們應是確實住在亞洲或者是亞洲的附屬島嶼。錄取論文的標準，最重要的有四點：一，應具

夏季發表，並將得獎的論文登在「新史月刊」或其刊物。凡與賽論文，都應在一九三五年三月一日前遞到美國紐約新史社。通信地址為：

敲碗聲，喊叫聲，鍋子叮噠聲……每天十二時十分，總是這般亂哄哄的鬧一陣兒，但僅僅是陣兒，隨即就安靜下去了：兩個一塊兒，三個一羣的，挺着吃飽的肚子，用手擦着嘴旁的油，笑嘻嘻的談着：「今天課室裡得意的事，陸續的從食堂走出，散佈到各宿舍去。所剩下的僅是下午沒班的幾位，用吃聖餐的方法，慢慢的在品滋味……」男生膳務自從這季歸學校管理以來，底確是進步多了，包飯同零吃分在兩處，是第一進步，因為如此，零吃才不致於影響包飯；吃飯先交費，是第二進步，因為這樣，菜錢可以減低，花賬也不再發生。第一食堂專為包飯，飯費每月七元半，每掉六人，共六菜，計半量半量，素菜各二個，外尚有一量湯一素湯，質與量的方面，都比

Yenching Lakes Furnish Annual Income by Sale of Lotus Leaves & Fish

An income of $60 is yielded every year from the water-lilies and weeds in the lakes behind the chemistry building, and the university expects $300 from the haul of fish in the big lake next year, states Mr. Shih Sung-p'ei, superintendent of the landscaping workers of the university.

The water-lilies in the lakes yield $20 every year from the sale of leaves and lotuses. They are red lilies whose roots are usually not taken for flour as are those of the white lilies, but they may be eaten in other forms. The weeds which thrive around the former west athletic field are sold for $40 annually. They are used for making mats, baskets, roof-covering, etc.

It costs the university $170 yearly to clear off the weeds in the big lake. Last year the university saved that amount by letting the lake to fish dealers for raising fish which eat the grasses in the lake. Unfortunately they lost $240 last year and did not renew the contract. Now the university is undertaking the business itself and put 500 catties of small fish into the lake last March. The university expects to get $300 some time next year from the sale of the fish. Students are advised not to angle in the lake because the fish therein eat weeds and mosquitos and are expected to grow big for sale. If waltonian diversion is required they may fish in the lake near the Alumni gate, it is announced.

How much is earned from the lotus industry in the various lakes in the Lang Jun Yuan, Ta Yuan and Wei Shiu Yuan, the authorities do not know. The lotus and fish industries in the two gardens are in the hands of the owners of the gardens, which in some cases are not the university's property. The university rents Lan Yung Yuan from the descendants of Lan Pei-le, a nobleman of the Tsing Dynasty, and has free use of Ta Yuan through the kindness of the owner, the retired General Wang Hwai-ching of the Tsing Dynasty, now residing in Tientsin.

The lakes and farm-lands in the Wei Shiu Yuan are let to a business man who pays the university $200 yearly for rent. The university has no exact knowledge how much is really obtained from the lotus industry in this garden.

Children See Mickey Mouse

A happy crowd of some twenty Yenching hsiao hai-tze descended en masse Saturday afternoon upon the Capitol Theatre in Peiping to view the showing of an all-Mickey Mouse—Silly Symphony program. Competent observers who were present report that the long-suffering oldsters who dutifully sunged the children to this juvenile idea of good entertainment did quite as much laughing as did their delighted juniors.

Physics Dept. Trains Student Radio Operators

Under the direction of Mr. Pi Te-sheng, physics instructor, a group of twenty-five students are learning the rudiments of radio-receiving. The first meeting was held in the Physics Building Thursday morning during chapel hour, and will continue its meetings every morning at the same time.

Time for the first few weeks will be taken up with Mr. Pi working on the transmitter and the class deciphering the dots and dashes.

Another class of about ten more advanced radio "bugs" are meeting each evening from 6:30 to 7 p.m. learning the art of transmission.

At present, only three persons on the campus are experienced enough to work AC2RT, Yenching's amateur radio station, and Mr. William Band, station director, hopes that some of the present group of recruits will progress far enough to be entrusted with running that station before long.

Seniors and Juniors Win Easy Basketball Games

Playing before a peppy but rather small crowd, the Senior and Junior basketball teams won their games without much competition yesterday. Although a fighting Frosh team gave all they had during the whole game, they were subdued by the more experienced Juniors. In the other affair, the Seniors with their good passing and teamwork gave the Faculty team a good drubbing by piling up over three times as many points as their opponents. The final scores for the Junior-Frosh and Senior-Faculty games were 40-26 and 70-22 respectively.

Staying with Miss Grace Boynton is Miss Helen Davis of the Botany Department of Wellesley College. Miss Davis will remain in Yenching for a few more days.

Women Students Claim 70 Of Yenta Campus Bicycles

Of the 600 bicycles in Yenching, 70 belong to women students, 80 to workmen, and the remainder to men faculty members and students, according to the University business office. The record of registered bicycles shows 900 vehicles, but because people carry away their vehicles from the campus without returning the licenses to have their bicycle fee of 50 cents refunded, the total number of bicycles registered exceeds the actual number by about 300.

The purpose of registering each bicycle is to prevent its loss. The gatemen will not allow any stranger to ride a bicycle out of the campus without a tag. Moreover, they recognize almost every Yenching student and most of the bicycles in the campus.

Visitors wishing to glance over the campus or to take a sight seeing trip around Peiping West are recommended to a guide by the business office. The guide fee is 30 cents per hour.

Tennis caddies are not allowed to come into the campus without a license issued by the business office. The number is limited to eighteen. Any misbehavior on the part of any boy may be reported to the business office, and the authorities may then revoke the license.

Lo Leads Sailer in Semi-Finals.

After a week's layoff, the semi-final matches of the Yenching men's open singles tennis tournament were played off yesterday. Due to darkness, the matches could not be finished and had to be postponed to a later date. The scores for both the matches when called off were one set apiece for Li and Price, while Lo led Sailer two sets to one in the other match.

Williams Retires as Missouri U. President

Sze, Chinese Minister to U. S.,
Lauds Man Who Helped Found Yenta Dept.

Dr. Alfred Sze, Chinese minister to the United States, was one of the many statesmen, editors and educators who expressed their appreciation for the creed of Dr. Walter Williams upon the occasion of his retirement as president of the University of Missouri. Dr. Williams, whose work in helping to establish the Department of Journalism of Yenching University Dr. Sze said is especially appreciated by China, tendered his resignation as president of the university on September 10. He was seventy years old last July, and resigned in order that a younger man might assume the duties of his office.

Following his retirement as president, which is effective on December 31 this year, Dr. Williams will resume his duties as dean of Missouri's famous school of journalism, which he founded in 1908.

Hopes Williams Will Visit China

In writing his regrets to the University of Missouri Dr. Alfred Sze said in part: "I am truly sorry to learn of Dr. Williams' resignation,.....but we must all agree that he is entitled to a well-earned rest. Dr. Williams is as well known in the Orient as in America,.....The Chinese people still recall with pleasure his trip to China. Now that he is soon to have more leisure, they will hope he will make another visit to our country where he has many former students and admirers."

Lacking even a complete formal high school education, Dr. Williams holds two honorary degrees and was the first to conceive and carry out the idea of education for journalism in colleges and universities. He has from the first supported the Yenching department, and has so many former students in the Orient that people in the Far East have come to ask all American journalists stationed in this part of the world: "What year did you graduate from Missouri?"

Dr. Stephenson To Lecture On "Human Body" Thursday

Dr. Paul H. Stephenson, of the Anatomy Department, P. U. M. C., will give a lecture on "Human Body: Size and Form" Thursday at 4:30 p.m. in the Biology Lecture Room, B203. Dr. Stephenson gave this lecture in Peiping before the Peking Natural History Society last year. The lecture will be illustrated by some very striking lantern slides, which deal with the effects of those mysterious "endocrine glands" like the thyroid and pituitary, and attempts to analyze the causes for giants and dwarfs.

The Yenching News

English supplement of the Yenching Hsin Wen, (燕京新聞) laboratory publication of the Department of Journalism of Yenching University. Peiping, China.

Published three times a week on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

THE INWARD I

Oldtimers will recall the vigorous argument in the 1925 faculty pre-session conference over the use of academic titles and given names in Yenching. It arose, I believe, out of the sincere desire of the leading administrative officer to be addressed by his Christian name by his friends, irrespective of their ages and standings. To many, this seemed like an Englishman calling Queen Mary "Mamie" to her face.

To others, wide usage of given names and nicknames seemed to smack of the somewhat artificial affability of some luncheon clubs. The discussion has been remembered rather longer than most arguments, possibly to some extent because a yearling, following a heated defense of greater formality by Miss Konantz, remarked that he was glad he had never yielded to the impulse to address her as "Emma."

But the Problem Will Not Down

The difference of opinion is still with us. The consensus then was for titles and surnames in public and in print, and that everyone should "act natural" in private social relationships. Hence the formal, full-name style of this publication. If majority opinion has changed, we should be glad to use Mr., Mrs. or Miss for all. The surname only might also be acceptable, except where there is a possibility of confusion of identities.

Is there any sufficiently weighty reason, for example, why we should use up the space required by the "Margaret B." every time we have occasion to refer to the Dean of the Women's College? Please let us have your preference on this knotty question of newspaper style.

"Prof's" But not "Doc.'s" in News

We are privileged to publish in an adjoining column an excerpt from a letter which discusses the question of titles. Dr. Boring (m) says a rule he cites is explicit, which leads one to ask, whose rule? The deskbook of the School of Journalism of the University of Missouri, which is based upon prevalent practice of the best edited American newspapers and periodicals, sanctions "Prof." when used with a specific name.

Certainly, I would agree that he is correct in adding that there is no consistent principle behind the ruling. Why, logically, should we object to the form, Prof. Galt, but accept Dr. Chou? If we must say Professor Wu, why not Doctor Young?

Shall it Be "Yenjen" or "Yenchinian"?

Several have responded to our request for suggestions of a short name which will include all members of the community, whatever their functions or status. The most ingenious coinage (made by our most recent Western addition to the faculty) is Yenjen (燕人), which has the great advantage of being usable equally well in both languages. The majority prefer Yenchinian, however, as already somewhat established. Euphony justifies the dropping out of the "g".

K'e Nan-si points to the analogies of Oxonian and Time's use of Harvardian. Some of our verse libre laureates ought to be able to give us some good "Yen Jingles" dealing with these two problems.

THE LETTER BOX

The Editor
The Yenching News
Sir:

Were I not convinced by the noisy disturbance which I experienced last night I should not have believed the recent complaint against the walking about of hard heels in the library.

Apart from that I beg to use a few lines of the Yenching News to remind those who are talkative enough to hold unnecessary conversation partly with lady friends in the library. It must not be forgotten that the humming and buzzing noise the chatterer produces proves to be the most challenging nuisance to the library as a whole, no matter, on the other hand, how much he may enjoy it himself. Of course he may enjoy the liberty of social intercourse, but he must not—for goodness' sake—kill the true spirit of liberty. If you must talk to a lady what is wrong with Sister Hall? It is not necessary to show off your warm friendship towards your lady friend in the wrong place and at the wrong moment.

Yours truly,
A. Vincent Ho

Dr. Stuart's Return Delayed

Word has been received from Dr. J. Leighton Stuart in Shanghai to the effect that he was called to that city after the reception in Nanking which was given in his honor by government leaders. He expects to stop at Nanking on his way back, and writes that his return to the campus may be delayed until after Thursday.

Miss Cochran Has Week-end Guests

Mrs. William Cochran of Paotingfu who is the sister-in-law of Miss Nancy Cochran, with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meyer of the American Legation, were the house guests of Miss Cochran over the week-end. They left Yenching this morning.

Dr. Edwin G. Boring Writes Sister Here in Facetious Vein On Usage of Academic Titles

Following is an excerpt from a letter to Dr. Alice M. Boring from her brother, Dr. Edwin G. Boring, professor of psychology in Harvard College:

"In America the ascending order of dignity and importance is (1) Mr., (2) Dr., and (3) Professor. Never write 'Mister, Doctor, or Prof.' To write 'Prof.' is like saying 'Prof.'; and to write 'Doctor' is like saying 'Doc.' The rule is explicit but there is no consistent principle behind it.

"England is somewhat different. There, there are many top-notch men who do not have chairs, and hence are not professors. And the Ph. D. is rather recent. Hence a distinguished physiologist like Adrian of Cambridge is not Professor nor Dr., and becomes plain Mr. Germany uses all titles when it can. Plain Professor is above Dr., with Gehrimrat on top.

When Everybody's Somebody, Then—

"The thing is complicated in America, however, by the fact that academia has been so boomed that the titles are ceasing to confer distinction. Hence the hierarchy is opposed by two tendencies: (1) some people go down the scale with increasing intimacy, so that they would write 'Professor John Dewey,' 'Dr. John MacMaster' if they felt on good terms with him and informal, and 'Mr. Edwin G. Boring.' This is the rule I hold to.

"My secretary calls me 'Doctor' and writes me 'Dr.' She says 'Doctor' for me to other people unless she thinks they need to be impressed; then she says 'Professor.' (Incidentally there is a whole series of inflections with which the word Professor can be said, scaling it in dignity and importance.) I shouldn't think of writing anything other than 'Miss' to AMB, unless I saw some way in which it might aid in identification. I should write 'Professor' if I were addressing AMB en route at Moscow, but 'Miss' at Lang Jun Yuan.

"The other tendency (2) is to oppose the titles and to revert to Mr. On the surface this move looks like democracy, but it moves over to snobbery very easily. Thus one may say 'Mr. Dewey, Mr. Münsterberg, Mr. Lowell, Mr. Conant', emphasizing the fact that the speaker and they belong to a community that recognizes worth without the labels. Such an one

Yenching Dairy-Farm Enjoys Good Business

Since the Yenching Dairy-farm was taken over by Yenching University from the Agricultural Department of Nanking University in 1931, it has been operating successfully, according to Mr. Yü Chin-chou, chief superintendent of the farm. The Yenching Dairy-farm was formerly a part of the animal husbandry experimentation farm which is now limiting itself to dairying since its other activities have been transferred to Nanking.

Supplying the whole Yenching community, the dairy-farm is able to produce 200 pounds of milk every day out of 14 milkable cows. There are altogether 40 cows in the farm which are all scientifically cared for by five workmen. The general sanitary conditions of the farm are especially well maintained.

According to Mr. Yü, a sum of $450 is necessary to meet monthly expenses, which are more than balanced by an $800 monthly gross income. If everything goes well, a net profit of about $15,000 is expected within ten years, says Mr. Yü.

Mrs. C. B. Olds Will Address Joint Hygiene Classes Thurs.

Mrs. Charles B. Olds will speak to the combined men's and women's Hygiene classes on Sex Hygiene on Thursday, October 25th, at 11:10 in McBrier 103. Mrs. Olds is well known throughout the Orient as a lecturer on this and kindred subjects.

All students in the hygiene classes that regularly meet at this hour are expected to attend the lecture. Anyone else who is interested will be welcome.

Margaret Hayes Tennis Champion

Miss Margaret Hayes won the first prize of the Women's open tennis tournament by beating Miss Yang Che-hsien in the final's last Saturday. Miss Yang will meet Miss Wang Yuan-mei to settle the second and third prizes.

may use 'Professor' of a lesser man. Thus, half-snobbery: 'You know, Professor Jones (of Tulane), I think Mr. Einstein's theory rather cuts across your view.' Full snobbery: 'Well now, Professor Jones, Mr. Einstein told me explicitly that he thought.....'
